

Sanja Momčilović Bognić (Serbia)

I was born in 1962 in Novi Sad, I have lived with dogs since childhood. My first dog was a wire-coated standard dachshund with whom I participated in many working matches for pitters as well as in many dog shows.

I have been breeding Hungarian Vizsla, German Hunting Terriers and German Shortcoated Pointers bearing the prefix "IDA" 2883 FCI since 1990. For all these years, many champions and international champions have emerged from my kennel, both in beauty and working.

I passed my first judge's exam for the work of pit dogs in 1988. I am still actively engaged in dog world and I am currently a judge for all 10 FCI groups, a judge for the work of hunting dogs as well as a BIS judge.

Active member and president of the Bečej kennel society since 1994. I organize the international dog show CACIB Bečej, which is celebrating its 50th anniversary this year. I also organize international working tests of hunting dogs.

In the position of vice-president of the Hunting Association of Vojvodina from 2021 and head of the delegation in the World Hunting Organization (CIC). I have judged in over 40 countries of the world both working matches for hunting dogs and dog shows. I speak English, Hungarian and Italian.
